

Hypnotherapy

Hypnotherapy involves using relaxation techniques and a state of focused attention to help a person to make positive life changes. These changes include both psychological issues and physical conditions

Some of these conditions are as follows:

Anxiety disorders, phobias, stress management, confidence building, performance anxiety, smoking cessation, eating disorders and weight management.